mid the field's a-gain where once I used to roam — I could hear the dark-ies sing-ing —
— And it sound-ed sweet to me — I pic-tured scenes of days gone by When I played at Moth-er's knee — There stood the same old school-house — that I went to long a-go — I could see my play mates and my sweet-heart Flo —
— When I woke my heart was sore — For that dream brought back once more — — Sweet mem-'ries of my old Vir-gin-ia Days. —
